GARTH PLEASANT

Rochester College

Garth Pleasant has won 647 games as basketball coach at Rochester College and Georgia Christian High School. He has won four National Championships at Rochester College and was runner up an additional four times.

His teams have qualified for the National Tournament 19 times in his career.

Garth has served on the USCAA (United States Collegiate Athletic Association) Board of Directors for the last ten years and was named USCAA president for four years.

He was named BCAM's College Coach of the Year in 1989 and USCAA National Coach of the Year in 1986, 1998, 2004 and 2005.

"I am humbled and grateful and realize that in all these years I have never scored a point or grabbed a rebound.

I am indebted to all of my former players and especially to my wife Pat for all of her support and encouragement," says Garth.
