

2011 BCAM MEN'S ACADEMIC/ATHLETIC HONORS TEAM

D J BAISDEN SPRING ARBOR UNIVERSITY

D J Baisden is a senior guard, a two time All-Conference selection, and has scored 1,773 career points. This season he averaged 18.4 points per game, 2.43 assists and 2.74 steals per game. He calls Munith, Michigan his home and is a 3.2 GPA Accounting major in the School of Business at Spring Arbor University. He was selected as a NCCAA All-American.

WILL BOWSER HOPE COLLEGE

Will Bowser is a senior forward who is from Midland, Michigan. He was a first team Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association selection and led his team to a conference championship, league tournament championship, and NCAA Regional Finals. This season he averaged 18.7 points per game, 5.1 rebounds per game, and 2 steals per game. He scored a game high 46 points and was selected league player of the week. While at Hope Will has volunteered in the Holland Reading in the Schools program, the City Mission, Habitat for Humanity, and has been a campus Bible Study group leader. He was also team captain his junior and senior years. Will is a 3.39 Accounting major and has been a member of academic leadership programs.

REGGIE HAMILTON OAKLAND UNIVERSITY

Reggie is a junior point guard from South Holland, Illinois. He was named first team All-Summit League and on the Summit League All-Tournament team. He ended the season with 187 assists/ 5.7 per game, 17.6 points per game, made 82 three point shots, and was named Summit League player of the week on two occasions. During the season he surpassed 30 points in two games, reached double figures in 30 of 35 games, and surpassed 20 points in 16 games. He is a Communications major with a 3.1 GPA and provides great leadership as team captain.

ZACK NOVAK UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

Zack is a junior guard from Chesterton, Indiana. He is a person who finds time for others as he frequently spends time at Mott's Children's Hospital, was a leader with the Michigan Little Dribblers Club, and was a counselor at University of Michigan Basketball camps. While at Michigan he has played in 100 career games, averaged 9 points and 5.8 rebounds per game, and was Academic All-Big Ten along with Capital One Academic All-American District IV. Zack was a great leader for the Michigan team and was only the second sophomore at the University of Michigan to be named captain. He is a Business Administration major in the Ross School of Business with a 3.47 grade point average.

JOE PREPOLEC KALAMAZOO COLLEGE

Joe is a junior 6' 6" post player from Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. This past season he averaged 18.7 points per game, 7.1 rebounds per game, had 59 blocked shots, and had 29 steals. He has been a first team All-Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association honoree during the last two seasons. This past year he was the team's Most Valuable Player, is the Kalamazoo College leader in career blocked shots— 159, and was the MIAA player of the week. While at Kalamazoo he has been awarded the Most Outstanding Student in the Economics and Physical Education departments. He has maintained a 3.59 grade point average as a Mathematics and Economics double major.