

Mr. Basketball Dwaun Anderson no match for Tyrin Wade's White team

Detroit Free Press Aug 7, 2011

Draining 15 triples, the White team led from start to finish at the Basketball Coaches Association of Michigan's 32nd Annual All-Star Festival on Saturday at the Palace. The A-B White team defeated the Black team, led by Mr. Basketball Dwaun Anderson, 114-85.

The White team was led by Ferris State-bound Tyrin Wade, a center from Lansing Sexton who scored 20 points and made three triples.

Anderson of Sutton's Bay was the Black team MVP with 23 points, mostly on dunks and lay-ups. Brandan Kearney (Detroit Southeastern), who will be Anderson's teammate at Michigan State, scored eight.

"It was amazing playing the guys," said Wade. "I've been playing with Buck (Henton) since we were little, so it was great to be on the same team with him. I didn't think I had anything to prove, because I've played with most of these guys before."

BOYS C-D: The White team rallied from a five-point deficit for a 96-90 thriller.

Guard George Goodman of Saginaw Buena was the White MVP with 18 points and was the only player on the winning team in double figures.

"It was great being out there; I haven't played in a minute," said Goodman, who is headed to Saginaw Valley State. "It was an awesome feeling. Passing should help a guard get his game going, so I just tried to pass the ball and get everyone involved."

Kody Chandler of state champion Schoolcraft led the Black team with 17 points and was the team's MVP.

GIRLS A-B: In a battle between future Michigan State teammates and roommates, Becca Mills' (Midland Dow) White team got the better of Miss Basketball Jasmine Hines

(Central Lake) and the Black squad in a 79-64 victory.

Mills, a 6-foot-3 center, was the White team's MVP, scoring 14 points; Hines, a 6-3 center, was held to six.

Crystal Bradford of state champion Inkster led the Black team with 16 points and was the MVP.

"We've been on campus since July," said Mills. "This was fun. It was good to come back and see how good the players have gotten. It was nice to get the last game out of the way. They were bigger than us, so we talked about getting out and running."

GIRLS C-D: Michigan recruit Nicole Elmblad controlled play with her passing, defense and rebounding during the Black team's 86-66 victory.

Elmblad (St. Ignace LaSalle) was the Black MVP with 23 points. Halle Wangler (Royal Oak Shrine) was the White MVP with 14 points.

"It looked like we had been playing together for a long time," said Elmblad, who led her team to the Class C state title. "I thought we were very unselfish and shared the ball."

Said Black team coach Dorene Ingalls: "They played great; they were very unselfish,"

SLAM DUNK: High-flying Jalen Reynolds of Livonia Stevenson defeated junior Ray Lee, formerly of Romulus and preparing to enter a prep school, 55-45, when Lee couldn't convert a second of two dunks.

THREE-POINT SHOOTING: Trent Windemuller of Holland defeated Jacob Zielinski of Laingsburg, 14-8, to win the boys crown. ... Sabrina Kent of Crestwood High School defeated Emily Fasel of Kingsley, 15-11, to capture the girls title.

Contact Perry A. Farrell: 313-222-2555 or pafarrell@freepress.com.