

HALL-of-FAME INDUCTEE

AL SCHRAUBEN

Portland St. Patrick High School

Since 1985, Al Schrauben has led the girls Basketball program at Portland St. Pat's to six State Championships, four State Runner-Up finishes, twelve Final Fours, twelve Regional, sixteen District and twelve League Championships.

In 25 years, his teams have won 532 and lost only 172 games.

Al has been an active BCAM member since 1988.

He served on the Basketball Officials and Coaches Communication Committee (BOCCC) from 2006 to 2009.

He also has been active in various basketball committees for the MHSAA and St. Pat's.

Al has won numerous BCAM awards including: Regional Coach-of-the-Year (1988, 1995 & 1996) and State Coach-of-the-Year (1994, 2001 & 2005). He has also been named the Lansing State Journal Area Class D Coach-of-the-Year in 1988, 1999, 2000, 2002, 2003 and 2009.

In 2001 he was named AP (Associated Press) Coach-of-the-Year.