CONROY ZUIDERVEEN

Conroy Zuiderveen has been a registered MHSAA basketball official since 1979. He is a member of several college officiating staffs in women's basketball serving in the MIAA, NAIA, MJUCO and Mid-Central Conference in Indiana. An active member in the West Michigan Officials Association for 30+ years, he has served in many capacities within the group. Conroy has been the Registrar for fifteen years, assisting in assigning officials, in addition to being Program Rules Meeting Chairperson for five years. In 2000 he was recognized as the WMOA "Official-of-the-Year". Conroy has been a Certified Trainer with the MHSAA for ten years and has conducted many clinics and training sessions for new and veteran officials. Over the years he has mentored high school students in the Legacy Student Official Program. Conroy has been fortunate to work the state tournament at various levels for over twenty years along with a Girls Final in 2009.

Conroy is active in the Officials for Kids program and served as the co-chair for the Helen DeVos Children's Hospital sports day for visually impaired children. Conroy and wife Joanie have two sons who live in North Carolina with their families.
