

2013 HALL-of-FAME INDUCTEE

Andrew Sheridan

Jackson High School

Andrew Sheridan coached the varsity boys basketball team at Jackson High School for 20 seasons beginning in 1980. He also coached the varsity girls for 5 seasons in the late 70's and early 80's. He amassed a total of 382 varsity wins during this time. His teams were successful in the post season as well, accumulating 13 league championships, 10 district championships and 4 regional championships. His teams made it to the final four 3 different times and his 1981 girls' team was state runner-up.

Andy was named AP Class A Coach of the Year for Girls in 1982 and was Special Mention in 1981. He earned League Coach of the Year honors twice and BCAM Regional Coach of the Year three times.

Over the years, Sheridan has served on the BCAM All-Star Selection Committee and the Jackson High School Hall of Fame Committee. He has been a speaker at many community events and helped with basketball clinics for the Jackson Recreation Department.

With Andy tonight is his girlfriend Laura Quinn and his mother Susan Smith—age 92. He has 3 sisters, Wendy, Susie and Ann and a brother, Mike. Andy has two daughters and sons-in-law, Shelby and Drew, and Melissa and John. His 5 grandchildren include Sam, Faith, Meg, Duncan and Grace.
