

2013 HALL-of-HONOR INDUCTEE

ASSISTANT COACH

Richard G. Sumampow – Johannesburg-Lewiston Schools

Rich coached for 37 years at Johannesburg-Lewiston Area Schools, recently retiring from coaching in 2013. He has coached almost every level of basketball including JV, freshmen and junior high—both boys and girls. He also coached varsity volleyball for 12 years. He says he “loves working with student-athletes and helping them to learn and enjoy the elements of all the sports they participate in—to be good sports and to respect themselves as well as the other players.”

Rich has been married to Sue for 22 years. He has 3 children and 3 step-children: Renee Koscielniak, Richard E. Sumampow, Daniel Sumampow, Scot Keskin, Alicial McVannel and Trisha Keskin. He also boasts a total of 10 grandchildren.
