

MICHAEL TALLEY — MR. BASKETBALL

Michael Talley, the six foot guard from Detroit Cooley, is the 1989 winner of the Hal Schram Mr. Basketball award. Michael will be presented the trophy at the annual BCAM All Star banquet, which will be held at E.M.U. on Saturday, June 17. He will be wearing the traditional #1 that evening in the Class A All Star game and again in the 2 game series with the Ohio All Stars June 22 & 23. Michael displayed his extraordinary ability to the entire country by being chosen to play in the McDonald's All Star Game.

Michael's coach, Ben Kelso, emphasized at the Press Conference at the Detroit Free Press, Michael's leadership role both on the court and in the community. Michael led his team to the Class A State Championship. Michael will play for the University of Michigan next year. The BCAM congratulates Michael on his outstanding high school career and we wish him well at Michigan. We are sure he will carry on the excellent sportsmanship, leadership, and success displayed by the previous winners of this, the most prestigious award given to a high school athlete, MR. BASKETBALL.
