EDWARD DOUMA
Calvin College

Ed will begin his 27th year as a head coach and 11th year at Calvin College. His first coaching job was at Shelby High School where his teams won 73 and lost 11. They won two State Championships in 1971 and 1972.

Ed went to Alma College in 1973 and has been coaching at the college level ever since. After Alma, where he spent one year, he made stops at Lake Superior State, Kent State University, University of North Carolina - Greensboro, and then to his present position at Calvin. His college record is 411 wins and 177 losses. Included are eight League Championships -- two at Lake Superior State and six at Calvin.

While at Lake Superior, there were also two NAIA National Tournament appearances, being a Quarter Finalist in 1975. At Calvin he has been in the NCAA National Tournaments nine times; Final Eight four times; Final Four twice and a National Championship in 1992.

Ed was GLIAC and NAIA District Coach of the Year in 1975. In 1992, he was NABC Kodak National Division III Coach of the Year and BCAM College Coach of the Year. He has also served on the NABC East/West All-American Game Committee. Ed is a member of the BCAM Board of Directors as the College Representative.
